

I do not agree with the FCC regulating the State's no call laws. Indiana's no call law is great! I have enough things to do when I am at home let alone for someone to call me and try to sell me something. This really irritated me when I had a newborn and both of us tried to sleep. If I wanted to buy something there are enough ways to buy than to try to have a salesman/telemarketer try to sell me something.